DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE

The Most Valuable Remedy ever discovered.

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, and BRONCHITIS, are always prevalent in our fickle climate. Relief is invariably afforded by DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. The beneficial effects of this reliable medicine are immediately felt. Slight attacks yield to a single dose, while in severe cases, where rest is broken owing to continuous coughing, the judicious use of CHLORODYNE will at once tranquillise the sufferer as will no other medicine.

CHLORODYNE never fails to relieve pain of every kind, and its soothing and restoring effects are equally marked in NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, and RHEUMATISM, rapidly giving relief when all other remedies have failed.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in DIARRHŒA and other complaints of the Bowels, its controlling and curative effects being truly remarkable, and it is strikingly efficacious in CROUP, FEVER, and AGUE.

CHLORODYNE is taken in drops, graduated according to the malady. The doses are small, so that a bottle is not soon exhausted, but remains ready to meet emergencies. No more reliable and generally useful medicine can be kept at hand. It is agreeable to take, pleasant in action, and has no bad after effects.

There is no GENUINE CHLORODYNE other than DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S and no SIMILAR MEDICINE having the same VALUABLE PROPERTIES.

Convincing Medical Testimony with each bottle.

Of all Chemists, 1/1½, 2/9, 4/6.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT, ORDERS IN COUNCIL, REGULATIONS, &c.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

(1.) ORDER IN COUNCIL of May 21, 1855.—(Examinations.)

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for testing, according to fixed rules, the qualifications of the young men who may from time to time be proposed to be appointed to the junior situations in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan,* Assistant Comptroller-General of the Exchequer, John George Shaw Lefevre, Esq.,* Companion of the Bath, Clerk Assistant to the House of Lords; and Edward Romilly, Esq.,* Chairman of the Board of Audit: or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them; shall be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men so proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in the Civil Establishments as aforesaid, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties hereinafter assigned to them.

And it is hereby ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of a Secretary to the said Commissioners, and of such Examiners and others as may be required to assist in the performance of their duties.

And it is hereby ordered, that all such young men as may be proposed to be appointed to any junior situation in any department of the Civil Service shall, before they are admitted to probation, be examined by or under the directions of the said Commissioners, and shall receive from them a certificate of qualification for such situation.

(a) And it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, in respect of every such candidate, before granting any such certificate as aforesaid—

- 1st, to ascertain that the candidate is within the limits of age prescribed in the department to which he desires to be admitted;
- 2nd, to ascertain that the candidate is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties;
- 3rd, to ascertain that the character of the candidate is such as to qualify him for public employment; and
- 4th, to ascertain that the candidate possesses the requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of his official duties.

The Rules (b) applicable to each department under each of the above heads should be settled, with the assistance of the Commissioners, according to the discretion of the chief authorities of the department; but, except that candidates for admission to any of the junior situations in any branch of the Civil Service will be required to obtain certificates of qualification as aforesaid, such Examining Board shall not make any alteration in respect to the nomination or appointment of candidates by those who are or may be charged with the duty of nomination and appointment.

After the candidate has passed his Examination, and received his certificate of qualification from the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the chief of the department for which he is intended, and he shall not be finally appointed to the public service unless upon satisfactory proofs of his fitness being furnished to the chief of the department after 6 months' probation.

And it is, lastly, hereby ordered, that in case the chief of any department considers it desirable to appoint to any situation, for which there are no prescribed limits of age, a person of mature age, having acquired special qualifications for the appointment in other pursuits, such person shall not, in virtue of this Order, be required to obtain any certificate from the said Commissioners in order to obtaining such appointment, but the chief of the department shall cause the appointment of any person not previously examined to be formally recorded as having been made on account of special qualifications (c).

constitution of the Second Division of the Civil Service is fixed and defined:

And whereas it appears from certain recent reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., and others, appointed by Her Majesty to be Royal Commissioners for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of the Civil Departments of the State, that further regulations are required in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows —

1. This Order shall apply to all permanent officers in the Civil Service drawing salaries, or placed on scales of salary, in excess of those of the Second Division as constituted by the Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890.

2. Candidates for clerkships falling within the description contained in Clause 1, and filled by open competition under the scheme known as "Class I," shall be not less than twenty two, and not more than twenty four years of age.

3. Every person hereafter certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment to the Civil Service, shall be subject to a strict probation for a period of two years, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Chief of the Department for which he is certificated, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless his two years' probation shall furnish to the Chief of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in that Department.

4. All officers appointed after the date of this Order, and all officers who shall, after the date of this Order, be promoted to any class carrying increase of salary, immediate or prospective, shall be liable to give an attendance of not less than seven hours a day, without any addition to the rates of salary in force at the date of this Order for a daily attendance of six hours.

Provided that no person promoted to a higher post shall in any case suffer immediate pecuniary loss by such promotion.

5. Promotion of officers from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions —

(1.) That there is a vacancy in the higher class which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Commissioners of the Treasury, it is competent for the authorities of a Department to fill up.

(2.) That the work of the Department requires such vacancy to be filled up.

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion has been reported by the Head of the Division or Department in which he is serving fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

6. Officers who are required to attend seven hours a day shall be allowed a half-holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Heads of the Departments in which such officers are serving are satisfied that the state of public business will permit.

7. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to officers shall not exceed thirty six week days during each of their first ten years of service, and forty eight week-days thereafter, exclusive in both cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and (subject to the convenience of the public service) the four Bank Holidays. Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing officers who, under the regulations of the respective departments in which they are serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

8. Sick leave may be granted by the Head of a Department to any officer serving in such department, subject to the following conditions, viz.: —

(1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.

(2.) If the number of days during which any officer in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under Clause 7 of this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may, at his discretion, grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave no officer shall be paid any salary, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may, at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick leave at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the officer would have been qualified.

9. An Attendance Book shall be kept in every Department for the purpose of recording times of arrival and departure.

10.† It shall be competent for the Head of any Department to call upon any officer of such Department to retire at the age of sixty on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases, the Commissioners of the Treasury may, at the instance of a department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, in no case exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

11.‡ No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, or financial company of whatever description, which would require the attendance of such officer at any time between the hours of ten a.m. and six p.m.

New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme.

12. The grant of duty-pay to the class of officers known as the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme shall be discontinued, provided that officers at present in receipt of duty-pay shall continue to receive the same so long as they retain the posts to which such duty-pay is attached.

13. In consideration of the cessation of such duty-pay, there shall be established an upper grade of such New Higher Division with salaries commencing at four hundred pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of twenty pounds to a maximum to be fixed by the Commissioners of the Treasury not exceeding six hundred pounds.

14. Promotion into the upper grade of the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme established under the foregoing clause shall be dependent on merit alone, and shall be made upon the recommendation of the Heads of Departments, provided that such Heads of Departments shall satisfy the Commissioners of the Treasury, before such promotion takes place, that the officer to be promoted is or will be insufficiently remunerated for the duties which he will be called upon to discharge by the scale of salary which he is receiving at the time when he is recommended for such promotion.

Any officer promoted under this clause shall accept such promotion subject to the condition that he shall give an attendance of not less than seven hours daily, without increase of salary in respect of increased attendance.

No officer who is in the receipt of duty-pay at the time of his promotion to the upper grade established by this clause shall rise, so long as he remains in that grade, beyond a salary of six hundred pounds, inclusive of such duty-pay.

15. The triennial increments hitherto allowed to clerks of the New Higher Division of the Playfair Scheme shall be abolished, and, in lieu hereof, such clerks shall receive annual increments of twelve pounds ten shillings.

The transition from triennial to annual increments in the case of existing clerks shall be effected as follows —

(1.) As from the 1st April, 1890, they shall receive an increment of salary equal to the proportion of their triennial increment of thirty-seven pounds ten shillings (omitting any fraction of a pound sterling) which may have accrued up to that date.

* Repealed by Clause 1 of Order in Council of May 29, 1905. See page 60.

† See Clause 18 of Order in Council of November 29, 1898, as to extension of application of these provisions (page 59).

(2.) The next increment after that described in the preceding paragraph shall accrue on the 1st April, 1891, and shall be at the rate of twelve pounds ten

PRESENT

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the 15th August 1890,* Her Majesty was pleased to make certain regulations in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments of the Civil Service:

And whereas it is expedient that similar Regulations, so far as circumstances admit, should be made with respect to pensionable officers in the Consular Service of Her Majesty:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

[illegible] such tests as may be determined by the Secretary of State and he shall not be finally appointed to the Consular Service unless his probation shall furnish to the Secretary of State satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in the Consular Service

2 Promotion of officers in the Consular Service shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1) That there is a vacancy which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the [illegible]

[illegible] pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive

Officers heretofore appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of [illegible]0

(2.)—Order in Council Making Regulations for Certain Purposes Specified in "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892."

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892"* (in this Order referred to as the Foreign Marriage Act), certain enactments relating to the marriage of British subjects outside the United Kingdom are consolidated, and Her Majesty the Queen in Council is authorized to make regulations for the purposes therein specified:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise, enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Embassy Marriages.

1. The person before and by whom a marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act may be solemnized and registered in an embassy house in a foreign country shall either be the ambassador, or the officer for the time being performing the duties of the ambassador, or be any of the secretaries attached to the embassy from time to time appointed for the purpose in writing by the ambassador, or by the officer performing his duties, and for the purpose of marriages solemnized in such embassy house such ambassador, officer performing his duties, or secretary shall, without any marriage warrant, be a marriage officer.

2. For the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act and these regulations, the house in which a British ambassador resides in the foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, or which is occupied by him in that country for the purposes of his embassy, shall be deemed to be the official house of such ambassador, and is in this Order referred to as the embassy house, and every place within the precincts or curtilage of any such house, and any church or chapel annexed to such house, or for the time being used with the consent of the Government to which the ambassador is accredited as the chapel thereof, shall be deemed to form part of the embassy house.

For the purpose of marriages in an embassy house the expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such part of the embassy house as the Ambassador may from time to time appoint as being sufficiently accessible to the public.

Embassy and Consular Marriages.

3. Where a marriage can be solemnized at a British consulate in a foreign country, the leave of the ambassador shall be obtained before the marriage is solemnized in the embassy house in that country.

4. (1) Where a marriage according to the local law of a foreign country is valid by English law, then before the marriage is solemnized in that country under the Foreign Marriage Act, whether in an embassy house or at a consulate, the marriage officer must be satisfied either—

(a) That both the parties are British subjects; or

(b) If only one of the parties is a British subject, that the other is not a subject or citizen of the country; or

(c) If one of the parties is a British subject and the other a subject or citizen of the country, that sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage in the foreign country in accordance with the law of that country.

(2) If a marriage officer, by reason of anything in this article, refuses to solemnize or allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring such marriage to be solemnized, that person shall have the right of appeal to a Secretary of State given by section 5 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

5. In the case of any marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act, if it appears to the marriage officer that the woman about to be married is a British subject, and that the man is an alien, he must be satisfied that the marriage will be recognised by the law of the foreign country to which the alien belongs.

6. The following modifications of the requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice which appear to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against the solemnization of clandestine marriages, shall have effect in cases where one only of the parties has dwelt within the district of the marriage officer:—

(1) A marriage may be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act in the official house of a marriage officer in whose district one of the parties has dwelt—

(a) If the marriage officer is satisfied that such notice as is mentioned below in sub-articles three and four of this article, has been given of the intended marriage in the place where the other party has dwelt; or

(b) If a Secretary of State is satisfied that the intended marriage is not clandestine, and that adequate notice has been given, and gives permission for the same to be solemnized.

(2) In either case the oath, affirmation, or declaration under section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act, shall, in addition to the matters specified in sub-sections (a) and (c) of that section, state that one of the parties has for three weeks immediately preceding, had his or her usual place of abode within the district of the marriage officer, and further state the place where the party who has not dwelt within that district has within three months immediately preceding had for three consecutive weeks his or her usual place of abode, and the notice which has been given in that place during those three weeks.

(3) The notice to be given where the marriage is not solemnized with the special permission of a Secretary of State shall, if the party has dwelt in a foreign country, be given, entered, and posted up in the manner and during the period provided by the Foreign Marriage Act, in like manner as if the marriage were to be solemnized by or before a marriage officer in that country, and the marriage officer to whom the notice is given in that country shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a certificate that the notice has been so given and posted up, and that he is unaware of any impediment which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage.

(4) If the party dwells in a place in the United Kingdom, the notice shall be given in the like manner and on payment of the like fee as if that party were about to be married in that place, and in England or Ireland shall be given to the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar, and in Scotland shall be given by proclamation of banns; and the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar shall deal with the notice and give a certificate for marriage in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district; and the session clerk of the parish in which the banns were proclaimed in Scotland shall, in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district, give a certificate of proclamation of such banns.

Consular Marriages.

7. OUTFITS (Diplomatic). See pages 150 and 151.

OUTFITS (Consular).—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions of 1907.

Outfit allowances are granted on the following scale:—

(a.) On 1st appointment, $\frac{1}{4}$th of annual salary.

(b.) On transfer, with promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{4}$th of annual salary.

(c.) On transfer, without promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{5}$th of annual salary.

(d.) On promotion in rank, without transfer, $\frac{1}{20}$th of annual salary.

(e.) On first appointment in the Consular service at a place where officer already resides, $\frac{1}{10}$th of annual salary.

Promotion in rank is promotion to the rank of Consul-General, Consul, or Judge, and does not comprise transfers to higher grades or to posts with larger salaries without higher rank.

The 5*l.* unit is adopted in the calculation of the total outfit allowance. When the fraction does not amount to so much as 2*l.* 10*s.*, it is abated from the allowance; and when it amounts to 2*l.* 10*s.*, or more, it is reckoned as 5*l.*, and so included in the allowance.

When the salary assigned to a post is on a scale of increments, the mean salary is taken as the basis of calculation in all cases in fixing the amount of the outfit allowance.

In the case of new appointments and of transfers and promotions the outfit allowance is not payable until shortly before departure on a direct journey to the new post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).

Countries other than China, Corea, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 7 of General Consular Instructions of 1907.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to travelling allowances. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

(a.) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and one-third of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant. In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, and 6*s.* 8*d.* a-night for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed wine allowance of 3*s.* 6*d.* a-day, or of 4*s.* 2*d.* if accompanied by his wife, provided wine is not included in the fares.

An officer transferred while on leave of absence is paid similar expenses from London, if he is in the United Kingdom, or from such place as he is in outside the United Kingdom, to his new post if, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the circumstances justify such a course.

(b.) On returning home on leave of absence after a continuous residence of five complete years he is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, and one-third of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph; and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence money.

(c.) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate.

The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.

(d.) In the case of a voyage by sea formal application must be made to the steam-ship company for any reduction of fare which may be available for official passengers.

(e.) Consular officers employed on special duty under the authority of the Secretary of State will receive payment of their travelling expenses, which may include either the actual cost of their maintenance or an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, according to circumstances, as the Secretary of State may determine.

(f.) If conveyed in a British man-of-war the Consular officer must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently.

A Consul-General or Consul is entertained at the Captain's table at the rate of 1*l.* 1*s.* a-day for the first fourteen days, and of 15*s.* subsequently. A Vice-Consul is entertained at the ward-room mess at the rate of 12*s.* for the first fourteen days, and of 9*s.* subsequently.

No gratuities to the crews of His Majesty's ships or to any Government servants can be charged to public funds.

(g.) Charges for luggage must not include transport of furniture, wine, or other heavy effects, nor can the cost of insurance be admitted.

(h.) A detailed statement of expenses on account of journeys, accompanied by the necessary vouchers, stating separately the amounts paid on the officer's own account and on that of his family, must be forwarded to the Secretary of State in a numbered despatch of the Consular series, on receipt of which the amount, if found correct, will be paid to his agent in England. If he has no agent he will receive authority to charge it in his account current.

Charges for luggage and other miscellaneous expenditure which cannot be strictly apportioned between the officer and his family must be divided as follows:—one half for the officer and the other half for his family.

(i.) Government is not responsible for loss or damage of baggage or effects of Consular officers, even while travelling on duty.

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person who, being the holder of an office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

7. Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

8. It shall not be lawful for the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

9. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmity of Persons under Sixty.

10. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

(In force, January 1, 1909.)

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having transferred to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings the charge of all the lands, buildings, furniture, and other property belonging to Her Majesty's Government at the several Treaty ports in China and Japan, it is desirable that the following Rules and Regulations should be observed in the charge, care, and occupation of the said properties.

Her Majesty's Ministers, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, Judges, Assistant Judges, and other Heads of Departments, who respectively have the use and occupation of buildings, furniture, or other property belonging to Her Majesty, are to be deemed officers in charge thereof, and to be responsible respectively for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Rules:—

Register of Properties.

1. All freehold, leasehold, and other Government properties at the respective Legations are to be registered in the Office of Works at Shanghai.

Registers of Legations, &c.

2. At each Legation, Consulate, Vice-Consulate, and at the offices of the Chief Judge and the Assistant Judge, is to be kept a Register of buildings, lands, furniture, &c., containing a complete description of the lands and buildings, inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to the Government, and copies of all Circulars relative to the management of the same.

Duties of an Officer on Removal, and of his Appointed Successor.

3. On the removal of an officer in charge from a station, his successor is to examine, sign, and date the Register, and to become responsible for its correctness, and for the safe custody of the property until he shall be relieved of his duties.

Periodical Examination of Registers by Assistant Surveyor of Works.

4. The Registers at the several Treaty ports are to be periodically examined and checked by the Assistant Surveyor of Works and the officers in charge, who are directed to afford the Assistant Surveyor every facility in making periodical examinations of the Government property and in verifying the Registers.

Boundaries of Properties.

5. Where any doubts exist as to the actual extent of the Government lands at any of the ports, the officers in charge are to have the boundaries clearly defined, and to take care that they are not interfered with.

Interference with Properties.

6. Officers in charge are also to take means (or in case they are unable to do so, to apply to Her Majesty's Minister and to the Assistant Surveyor for aid) to prevent the public bodies, municipalities, or private individuals from carrying out works, such as drains, roads, buildings, warehouses, bunds, piers, &c., which may directly injure or encroach upon any of the rights appertaining to the property of Her Majesty's Government.

Every Building to have a fixed name.

7. Every building is to be known by a fixed name, which is not to be changed without the knowledge of the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, who is to report the change to the First Commissioner of Works.

Custody of Properties.

8. The officer in charge at each station is to be held responsible for the safe custody and the proper use of the grounds and buildings belonging to the station.

Unoccupied Buildings.

9. When any building is unoccupied, the officer in charge at the station is to see that it is kept fit to receive a new occupant.

Change of Officers.

10. On the removal of an officer from any station the officer left in charge is to take over and deliver up the Government property to the incoming officer, each officer noting in the Register the actual condition of the buildings, offices, furniture, and other property when the respective transfers are made.

Non-occupation of Buildings, &c., by Non-authorised Persons.

11. No buildings or premises are to be occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to be provided with accommodation at the Government expense without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner of Works.

Non-alteration of Buildings, &c.

12. No alterations in the buildings or properties are to be made, or the uses for which they were originally intended to be changed, without previous communication with the Assistant Surveyor.

Proposals for New Buildings, Purchase of Property, or other Services.

13. All proposals for new buildings, purchases of property, lodging allowances in lieu of house accommodation, and purchases of furniture, must be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, and in time to admit of proper reference to the First Commissioner of Works.

Sudden Emergencies.

14. The Assistant Surveyor will be authorized to act without the previous authority of the First Commissioner in case of sudden emergencies, but only on condition that officers in charge report to the Assistant Surveyor all the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises.

Treasury Sanction for large Expenditure.

15. Proposals involving large expenditure are to be sent to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai by or before the month of October, in order that they may be submitted to the First Commissioner in time to obtain Treasury authority for including the cost thereof in the annual estimates for the following year.

Non-purchase or Hire of Houses, &c., without sanction.

16. No houses or premises are to be purchased or hired without the sanction of the First Commissioner or the Assistant Surveyor.

Form of Application.

Precautions against Fire.

43. Officers in charge are to use all reasonable precaution to protect Government property from fire.

44. Each public building is to be provided with one "extincteur" and at least twelve fire buckets, which are to be kept in the verandahs, lobbies, or other equally convenient place, filled with water and ready for immediate use.

45. All fireplaces are to be provided with cinder-boxes or trays to fit, and strong, close mesh wire guards; no live cinders are to be carried across the rooms, nor are the fires in the grates to be raked out; but when done with each fire is to be protected with its wire guard.

46. The foregoing articles will be supplied on requisition by the Office of Works, and the officer in charge of each building will be held responsible for their being kept at all times in working order; and where a fire engine is stationed the officer in charge is to see that it is always in working order.

Report upon causes of fires which may have broken out.

47. In the event of a fire breaking out in any of the Government buildings, the officer in charge is immediately to assemble a Court of Inquiry to ascertain the origin of the fire, and to inquire into the working condition of the foregoing appliances at the time of the fire, and the result of their use. He is then to draw up a Report of all the circumstances and send copies of his Report to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the First Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings.

48. The Assistant Surveyor of Works (if within easy reach) is, by virtue of his office, to be a member of the Board of Inquiry.

PAIMPOL.

Décret du 4 Mai, 1903.

Le Président de la République Française,

Sur le rapport du Ministre du commerce de l'indus-

[illegible] autorisé la [illegible] es-du-Nord) à contracter un emprunt de 360,343 fr. 70, en vue des travaux d'amélioration du port de Paimpol et qui a institué dans ce port des taxes de péages pour la garantie dudit emprunt ;

Le Conseil d'État entendu,

Décrète :

Art. I^{er}. Les conditions d'application des péages institués au port de Paimpol sont modifiées de la façon suivante :

1°. Navires armés pour la grande pêche, à chacune de leurs entrées dans le port de Paimpol, 1 fr. par tonne de jauge ;

2°. Navires français et étrangers en provenance ou en destination de l'étranger, 40 centimes par tonne de jauge :

1°. Les navires appartenant à l'État et les marchandises ou objets quelconques appartenant à l'État ou destinés à son service en vertu de marchés réguliers.

3°. Les navires pratiquant la pêche côtière ;

4°. Les navires entrés sur lest et repartis sans avoir [illegible]

5°. [illegible] à moins qu'ils ne se [illegible] le commerce ;

6°. Les navires caboteurs.

EXAGÉRATIONS DE L'INDIVIDUALISME.

L'individualisme suppose qu'en toutes choses, autant pour les intérêts collectifs que pour les intérêts privés, le jeu libre des forces individuelles a une pleine [illegible]

[illegible] progrès dans l'intérêt de tous. La prétendue éclosion [illegible] au bon ordre de [illegible] ces individuelles, [illegible] manières, soit par [illegible] e attraction passionnée des hommes pour le bien général, soit plutôt encore par une confusion entre l'intérêt privé et l'intérêt collectif. De ce que l'intérêt privé est en général un excellent guide pour certaines fonctions sociales : agriculture, industrie, commerce, en sorte que chacun est ordinairement le meilleur juge de ce qui le concerne et peut faire le bien commun en faisant le sien propre, on n'en saurait conclure que l'initiative privée suffit à faire surgir toutes les combinaisons d'intérêt collectif. Il est de la compétence de la puissance publique de réprimer la violence : pourquoi, sinon parce que les individus en seraient incapables? Si une loi d'expropriation pour cause d'utilité publique est nécessaire c'est parce que selon toute vraisemblance, les propriétaires ne céderaient pas spontanément leurs droits, même pour des œuvres indispensables au bien commun. L'intérêt privé a des visées étroites : moins un intérêt est direct, palpable, moins il a de prise sur les individus. On s'associera pour faire un pont, un canal, s'il y a un péage à percevoir ; on ne s'associera pas pour construire un phare. Il faut au commerce maritime des comptoirs, des points de relâche ; cependant la compagnie des Indes, malgré sa puissance, attendit que le gouvernement britannique les lui eût procurés. Le déboisement des montagnes menace les vallées d'inondations et d'ensablement : croit-on qu'il faille attendre la préservation de l'initiative privée ?

Now, what is the lesson these figures have left us? We have long known that to be beaten in a naval war would be our destruction. And here we may see how victory itself, though very costly, and even as complete as is likely ever to be practicable, may still leave our commerce laden with a heavy burden. We see our war expenses eating up the whole value of our exported produce ; and no hostile fleet anywhere at sea ; and yet the additional cost of insuring our merchant ships against capture, or destruction by the enemy, amounting to three or four times as much as the ordinary marine risk. Then, as now, we were vitally dependent upon our [illegible] aintain it only by enforcing, [illegible] a free way for our ships at sea [illegible] more so dependent. Great Britain then, at all events, grew within the ring-fence of her own coasts food enough to feed her own people. She is very far from doing so now. What we could not then avert, and what then threatened us with reduced wealth, would now threaten us with famine, and, that once realised, we could only submit. For the first time in history, a population of some forty millions would be reduced to the condition of a beleaguered and famished city. The proportion of our food for which we are annually and constantly dependent upon foreign supply, is now more than one-fourth. In wheat alone it is more than that, and it is [illegible]

FRENCH DICTATION.

Les peuples les plus avancés en culture intellectuelle se trahissent, comme les savants trop enthousiastes et trop bavards font de leurs secrets de laboratoire les secrets de tout le monde ; ils se livrent, diminuent la distance qui les sépare de leurs concurrents à tous les degrés, détruisent eux-mêmes leur supériorité. Tout se nivelle, et l'ardeur commerciale, l'amour du gain, sont précisément les appâts qui livrent peu à peu le plus civilisé au plus sauvage et le font rentrer dans la condition moyenne. Voyez ce qui s'est passé en Europe et en Amérique depuis la fin du siècle dernier. Ici ce sont les États-Unis, le Canada, le Brésil, la République Argentine qui prennent à l'Europe ses habitants, ses arts, sa civilisation et s'en rapprochent au point de la surpasser à l'occasion en génie économique ; là ce sont des peuples nés d'hier à l'industrie. Allemagne, Autriche-Hongrie, Russie, Espagne, Italie, etc., qui s'affranchissent de l'antique supériorité de la Grande-Bretagne, de la Belgique et de la France et apprennent à se donner elles-mêmes la plupart des produits manufacturés que jusque-là elles achetaient. Voici l'Asie attaquée de toutes parts et gagnée à la civilisation occidentale dans ce qui peut [illegible] la locomotive russe à [illegible] à son tour ; en tout [illegible] changes sera étroitement liée à celle de l'Europe, qui se l'est partagée.

Gonzalo [illegible] la yegua. Pensaba ahora en seguir hasta Valverde, pero al atravesar el camino de Carmona, paró [illegible] en el fondo, por el lado de Carmona, como a una distancia [illegible] una carrada de heno [illegible] una mujer de paño [illegible] encima [illegible] sobre la [illegible] de un burro y de [illegible] de tradición [illegible]. Y, de repente, todo se destruyó. La mujer [illegible] su burro, luego [illegible] en una vuelta del [illegible], el carro [illegible] en un leve torbellino de polvo, avanzando hacia la Cruz de las Ánimas, los caballeros descendieron [illegible] a través de las [illegible] de heno. En la carretera quedó solo como desamparado un hombre de chaqueta al hombro, que se arrastraba penosamente [illegible]. Gonzalo trotó con curiosidad.

— ¿Qué tiene? [illegible] Usted, ¿qué tiene?

El hombre, con la pierna encogida, levantó para Gonzalo un semblante melancólico, casi desmayado, que relucía bajo las gotas de sudor.

Y, gimiendo, contó que desde hace meses padecía de una llaga en un tobillo, que no se curaba con emplastos, ni con polvos, ni con bendiciones. [illegible] Y ahora andaba en busca de faena para ayudar a un compadre, también enfermo con calenturas, y [illegible] un pedrusco que chocó con la herida, levantó la carne, hirió el hueso y lo dejaba hecho una lástima. [illegible] Hasta rasgaría la camisa para enjugar la herida y amarrar por encima el paño.

— Pero así no puede andar, hombre. ¿Y entonces, de toda esa gente que estaba ahí hace un rato, nadie lo pudo ayudar? [illegible]. Un carro, dos hombrones.

Una tremenda punzada, en el temeroso esfuerzo de apoyar la pierna, arrancó un grito al interpelado. Pero sonrió doblándose. [illegible] ¿Qué quería el caballero? Cada uno en este mundo tiene su prisa. [illegible] Al fin, la [illegible] del burro prometió pasar por [illegible] para avisar, y tal vez uno de sus pequeños se presentara en el camino con una yegua que compró por Pascua, y que, por desgracia también cojeaba.

Los gastos de la arribada forzosa de un buque serán siempre de cuenta del naviero o fletante, pero estos no serán responsables de los perjuicios que puedan seguirse a los cargadores por consecuencia de la arribada, siempre que esta hubiere sido legítima.

En caso contrario serán responsables mancomunadamente el naviero y el capitán.

Si para hacer reparaciones en el buque, o porque hubiere peligro de que la carga sufriera avería, fuese necesario proceder a la descarga, el capitán deberá pedir al Juez o Tribunal competente autorización para el alijo, y llevarlo a cabo con conocimiento del interesado, o representante de la carga si lo hubiere.

Las pérdidas y desmejoras que sufran el buque y su cargamento a consecuencia de naufragio o encalladura, serán individualmente de cuenta de los dueños, perteneciendo les en la misma proporción los restos que se salven.

Si, navegando varios buques en conserva, naufragare alguno de ellos, la carga salvada se repartirá entre los demás en proporción a lo que cada uno pueda recibir.

Si algún capitán se negase sin justa causa a recibir lo que le corresponda, el capitán náufrago protestará contra él ante dos oficiales de mar, los daños y perjuicios que de ello se sigan, ratificando la protesta dentro de las veinticuatro horas de la llegada al primer puerto, e incluyéndola en el expediente que debe instruir con arreglo a lo prescrito.

El capitán que hubiere recogido los efectos salvados del náufrago continuará su rumbo al puerto de su destino, y en llegando los depositará, con intervención judicial, a disposición de sus legítimos dueños.

En el caso de variar de rumbo si pudiere descargar en el puerto a que iban consignados, el capitán podrá arribar a él si lo consintieren los cargadores o sobrecargos presentes y los oficiales y pasajeros del buque, pero no lo podrá verificar, aun con este consentimiento en tiempo de guerra o cuando el puerto sea de acceso difícil y peligroso.

An earnest effort has recently been made by the representative of a New York firm of export merchants to introduce American goods into Turkey, and this effort has met with considerable success. The representative referred to visited Constantinople with his samples. He remained two or three months and disposed of something like $40,000 worth of American goods. He then came to Smyrna with his samples and rented a room. He displayed to the merchants certain kinds of cotton goods to wit, calicoes, prints, sheetings, &c., hardware tools files, locks, knobs, razors, knives, padlocks, leather lambskins, goatskins, toys, &c. He made arrangements with Avedikian Frères, of Smyrna, to handle his goods and through them sold from sample some $25,000 worth of American merchandise. The representative remained here but four weeks, but in that time he paved the way for large future business and was the means of introducing many new classes of American goods. I learn from him that the chief obstacle in the way of developing American trade is German competition. He declares that in many instances the Germans, to gain business, dispose of large quantities of goods at simple cost price and give long credits. More than this, they make articles which are specially adapted to this market. Their goods have an attractive appearance, but are of inferior construction and quality.

I learn further that Americans seem to be unable to meet English competition in cotton prints (an article of great importance in this country). The English goods are cheaper and conform to the requirements of this market. Local merchants say that cotton prints should be twenty-eight inches in width, the cheaper qualities twenty six to twenty-seven inches, and the better qualities twenty-eight to twenty nine inches. The designs should be devoid of figures of living things, those of men, women, horses, dogs, or birds, being specially objectionable. Flowers and vines are liked, in bright, gaudy colours, specially red and yellow, or blue and green. In case American manufacturers desire samples for the purpose of studying the designs, quality, colours, widths, &c., used, I shall be glad to forward them.

The "Onoto" Patent Self-Filling Pen.

With Shut-off Valve so that the Pen can be carried in any position without fear of leakage.

N "Onoto" (Full Size) Price 10 6

DESCRIPTION OF THE MECHANISM.

Fig I

THE SHUT OFF AND REGULATING VALVE is formed by the vulcanite rod which runs the whole length of the pen and is terminated at one end by the head H and at the other end by the plug S When the head H is screwed home on the body B the plug S impinges firmly on the shoulder in the pen carrier P, and consequently closes the ink and air ducts of the feed In this condition the body is hermetically sealed and the pen may be carried in any position without fear of leakage

Upon unscrewing the head slightly the plug S is withdrawn and ink is allowed to flow to the feed The more the head is unscrewed the wider is the regulating valve opened It will be found that by only very slightly opening the valve the flow of ink will be so small as to almost instantaneously dry on the paper, whereas if the head be unscrewed a turn and a half, the flow will be as full as that obtained with the common steel nib and ink well

THE SELF-FILLING ARRANGEMENT.

In Fig 1, M is a collapsible leather sucker mounted on the rod of the shut off valve, near the lower end of the body In its normal position when the pen is in use for writing, this sucker occupies an enlarged recess in the body and ink and air are consequently able to flow past it

If the pen be empty, and the head H be unscrewed till it is clear of the body it may be drawn back as shown in Fig II the sucker collapsing on the back stroke, and allowing air and any little ink remaining in the upper end of the body to pass it

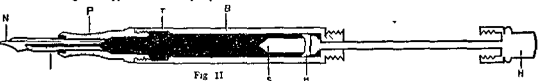

Fig II

On pressing the head forward again, the leather sucker acts after the manner of a bicycle pump, and drives the air contained in the holder before it Since the upper end of the pen is air tight, it follows that a vacuum will be left behind the sucker, and this will be maintained till the end of the stroke is reached, when the sucker will enter the enlarged recess r, and the vacuum will be suddenly released causing the fluid immediately surrounding the end of the pen-carrier to rush in and fill the empty space If this operation, of pushing home the head, be carried out while the pen carrier is dipping in ink, it follows that the pen will be filled

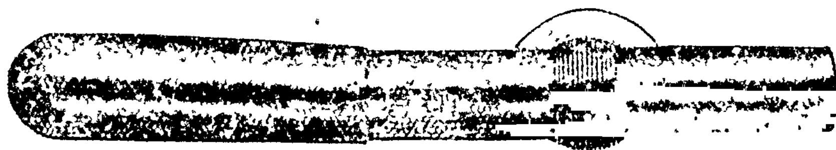

The sucker M is made by mounting a leather washer on to a vulcanite shank Since the completeness of the vacuum and hence the efficiency of the self filling arrangement depend upon the proper action of such sucker, it is desirable that a ready means be available for replacing it, should it show any tendency to fail in its action Spare suckers with instructions for fitting are sent out with each pen

Whereas the Shut off, Regulating and Self filling arrangement are operated by a single piece of mechanism, the action of filling the pen is of the simplest character The head is pressed home and the pen fills itself

CONKLIN'S POCKET NON-LEAKABLE SELF-FILLING PEN

12/6

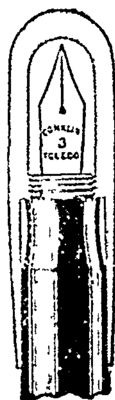

Can be carried in Ladies' Vanity Bag without fear of leaking.

CLOSED—ACTUAL SIZE.

The simplest and quickest Self-Filling Pen ever offered to the public. There is no trouble in filling, or any fear of ink getting upon the fingers when doing so.

The SIMPLEST, CLEANEST and MOST RELIABLE.

HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH

Is the latest device introduced for the instantaneous fac-simile reproduction of any Circular, Writing, Drawing or Music in Black Ink. It is the most recently improved form of Copying Apparatus by means of Composition, and its perfected character is now such as to constitute it a genuine marvel of its kind.

Outwardly it looks like a book, and could be placed with bound volumes upon the library shelf. It consists of two plates, which are movable, and should be used alternately. After the necessary number of copies (which are as sharp and clear as lithography) have been taken, the Ink remaining on the plate is not washed off; but after the lapse of a few hours will have disappeared by evaporation, and the plate will again resume its clear appearance. The Directions for Use are placed under the Composition (which is transparent); they are therefore always readable and immediately under the Operator's eye.

BLOCK SHEWING HALL'S PATENT SIMPLEX HEKTOGRAPH OPEN. THE TWO PLATES ARE MOVABLE.
